&tradition

Product Type Dining Chair

The L2oafer chair takes after its sibling, the Loafer lounge chair by Space Copenhagen designed for Arne Jacobsen's refurbished SAS Royal Hotel. Fine-tuned for high-end restaurants, upscale eating environments and private homes, the Loafer chair is a bit lighter, narrower, with a higher seat and a slight slope on either side to comfortably accommodate your arms. A fully upholstered chair that's soft yet sturdy, you'll feel like you're dining in a hotel whether you actually are or not.
