

Polar Alcove Sofa

Tacchini

Product Type Sofa

PearsonLloyd design for the seating system inspired by the blocks of ice floating in the waters of the Northern seas, a space far from the hustle and bustle of urban life where silence and unspoiled nature reign. Abundant volumes and oblique cuts form islands of total relaxation thanks to the new high backrest that creates an alcove, a secluded and intimate space. The seat is also equipped with integrated hi-tech accessories such as the side USB port, which make it a strategic ally to carve out maximum comfort but without giving up the advantages of contemporary technology.
