Product Type Stool

This stool design is a consideration of the basic simplicity of form and function. Two archetypal seating solutions are combined; a classic tractor seat, chosen for its ergonomic shape, sits on top of a rustic, three-legged milking stool. The generously proportioned seat is designed for comfort and is made from color gel coated polyester resin. The material chosen is tactile and contemporary and is intended to express modernity. The elegantly tapered legs are oiled European oak. Their simple, geometric form is in contrast to the fluid mass of the seat they support.

MATERIALS

Oak, polyurethane, gel coated polyester resin
