

Standard Sofa

New Tendency

Product Type Sofa

The modular Standard Sofa series is NEW TENDENCY's first upholstered furniture system, available as an armchair or a two- or three-seat sofa and intended for use either in combination or individually in private or public spaces, such as business lounges and hotel lobbies. With its compact powder-coated aluminum frame, which appears to float elegantly above the floor, the Standard Sofa reinterprets an archetype. Defined geometric shapes, clean lines, and carefully-balanced proportions lend the Sofa series its refined and yet monumental appearance. Available in three curated textile and color combinations with cushions upholstered in Vidar 3 fabric by Raf Simons for Kvadrat.
