

Quartz Amplifier Side Table

Jude Di Leo

Product Type

Side Table

Predecessor to our Quartz Amplifier Coffee Table, the Quartz Amplifier Side Table was inspired by quartz natural ability to amplify energy. Building upon the language of the gentle form established in the coffee table, this piece further pushes the boundaries of the material by testing its limits with balance and shape. One of the hardest materials on earth, quartz and takes an extremely long time to shape and polish. Each table is cut from a slab of pure quartz crystal and finished by hand.
