

Flowerpot VP8

&tradition

Product Type Wall Light

A beloved part of the &Tradition collection since 2010, the Flowerpot lamp is an icon of Danish design. Debuted by Verner Panton in 1968, the acclaimed designer produced numerous sketches of Flowerpot – yet the wall lamp version never made its way to production. Many years later, &Tradition, in close collaboration with the Panton family, has decided to make this classic and original Verner Panton design piece available.

The sconce is available as a plug-in with a cloth covered cord or hardwired (installed directly to the power outlet).

Note this comes with European backplate, it will not cover a standard US j-box.
