

Stone Sofa

Tacchini

Product Type Sofa Modular system

The dramatic allure of shapes sculpted by nature, unbelievably transformed into modular seating elements featuring sleek, rounded lines beautifully balanced within the overall creative design concept. Stone is a modular sofa system crafted to unfold infinite possibilities of arrangement with dramatic aesthetic impact, catering to public and contract spaces of all different sizes. The look and feel of stones worn smooth in water over time inspired designer PearsonLloyd, who shaped seating elements that find their highest expression in the modularity of arrangement options that set the imagination free but remain a steadfast ally in terms of quality and functionality. The elegantly slender and discreet metal structure, available in two different heights, ensures the Stone sofas fit perfectly in waiting rooms and leisure spaces, as well as in dining establishments like cafes, lounges and restaurants.
