

Ville AV28

&tradition

Product Type Bench

A celebration of nature and materiality, Anderssen & Voll's outdoor collection Ville embraces alfresco living with a combination of solidity and softness. The larger size of the two benches in the collection, the AV28 was designed to accompany the AV26 table, but also stands alone as a seating option for multiple people in private homes or in hospitality settings. The teak provides a warm and inviting surface which can be oiled or left untreated to suit individual preferences.
