

Toco Bench

Wentz

Product Type

Side Table

Toco is a reinterpretation of stools made from rustic wooden stumps. The design celebrates the imperfection of the wood cracking normally found in these pieces, while the geometric shapes reduce the object to its essence and the stainless steel suggests a contrast between "rustic" and contemporary design. The piece can be used both as a bench and a side table, indoors and outdoors.

Stool in brushed stainless steel. Detail in polished stainless steel. Acrylic feet to avoid metal contact directly with the floor.
