

Flowerpot VP10 Chandelier

&tradition

Product Type Chandelier

&Tradition introduces a series of Flowerpot Chandelier formations, in an exact translation of Verner Panton's signature immersive environments, as seen in his projects such as the Spiegel Publishing house interior in 1969 and the spatial installation 'Pantorama' in 1979. It is now possible to create a chandelier using the new VP10 pendant lamps in configurations of either 10 or 31 pieces.
