

Rombe IF1, IF2 & IF3

&tradition

Product Type Shelving

A modular shelving system with sculptural utility at its core, Rombe has been designed to adapt to the multifaceted needs of modern living. Available in 11 set configurations with the opportunity to add additional bays and shelves, the system grows and evolves with and around its surroundings. With a well-proportioned desk and shelves for storage, the IF2 bay offers enhanced functionality for work and study. Adding another layer of tactility to the Rombe system, the IF3 bay includes a cabinet with reeded glass doors to elegantly conceal objects.
