

Drift Pendant

Resident

Product Type Pendant

Pure, soft and ambient, the Drift Pendant is an organic triangular form that glows with even, diffused light. Inspired by a pebble stone, the Drift Pendant alludes a sense of calm and tactility, floating serenely as a weightless form. Designed for Resident by Michael Young, Drift combines poetic simplicity with careful and precise engineered rigor. Available in two sizes, the Drift Pendants can work effectively as standalone pieces or in clustered arrangements - bringing gentle, ethereal illumination to residential and commercial spaces alike.
